

Pueblo County Sheriff's Office
David J. Lucero, Sheriff

The Pueblo County Sheriff's Office seeks qualified applicants to establish a candidate pool for the position Communications Officer. This posting may be used to fill multiple openings.

Communications Officer

Work involves performing specialized and complex telecommunications and dispatch duties that require independent judgment and a thorough knowledge and understanding of communications equipment and policies and procedures. This includes answering emergency (911) and other calls, dispatching numerous local law enforcement and fire/emergency medical agencies, providing life-saving emergency medical instructions, and entering information into a computerized system. Candidates must have strong multi-tasking skills, the ability to monitor more than one dispatch radio at a time, and the ability to handle stressful calls. Testing includes, but is not limited to, a computerized skills assessment.

Candidates must be at least 21 years of age, have a high school diploma or GED, and a valid driver's license. Prior to employment, candidates will complete a background investigation, polygraph examination, physical examination to include a drug screen, and psychological evaluation. The expected duration of the selection process will not normally exceed two months. Candidates not selected may reapply in the future. This position requires shift work, including weekends and holidays. Salary range $3,894.000 - $5,841.00 per month with benefits.
